6.7. Corporate Action. All action necessary on the part of Purchaser to execute and deliver to Seller this Agreement and the performance or satisfaction of the obligations of Purchaser in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement has been or will have been duly taken prior to the Closing. This Agreement constitutes the valid and binding obligation of Purchaser and is enforceable against Purchaser in accordance with its terms, except as such enforcement may be affected by bankruptcy, moratorium and other laws relating to creditor's rights generally or general principles of equity.

SECTION 7. CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO OBLIGATION OF PURCHASER TO CLOSE

The obligation of Purchaser to consummate this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby is subject to the satisfaction at or before the Closing of each and every one of the following conditions, any of which Purchaser may, in its sole discretion, waive.

7.1. Representations and Warranties True. Each of the representations and warranties of Seller contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the Closing, as though made on and as of the Closing. Purchaser shall have received a certificate from the Seller to such effect (the "Seller's Officer's Certificate").

7.2. Performance of Obligations of Seller. Seller shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and covenants required to be performed by it under this Agreement prior to or as of the Closing Date.

7.3. No Obstructive Proceedings. No action or proceedings shall have been instituted against, and no order, decree or judgment of any court, agency, commission or Governmental Authority shall be existing against Purchaser or an Affiliate of Purchaser which seeks to or would render it unlawful as of the Closing to effect the sale of the Acquired Assets in accordance with the terms hereof, and no such action shall seek damages against Purchaser or an Affiliate of Purchaser in a material amount by reason of the transactions contemplated hereby.

7.4. No Adverse Change. Between the date hereof and the Closing Date, there shall have not been any Material Adverse Change.

7.5. Insurance Matters. Seller shall have complied with the covenants set forth in Section 11.6.

7.6. Required Consents. Seller shall have obtained the Required Consents.

7.7 Opinion of Seller's Counsel. Purchaser shall have received the opinion of Greenberg Traurig P.A., counsel to Seller ("Company Counsel"), dated as of the Closing Date, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Purchaser. In rendering such opinion, Company Counsel may rely as to factual matters on certificates of the comptroller and/or directors of Seller.

SECTION 8. CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO OBLIGATION OF SELLER TO CLOSE

The obligation of Seller to consummate this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby are subject to the satisfaction at or before the Closing of each and every one of the following conditions, any of which Seller may, in its sole discretion, waive.

8.1. Representations and Warranties True. Each of the representations and warranties of Purchaser contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the Closing, as though made on and as of the Closing and Seller shall have received a certificate of the Chief Executive Officer of Purchaser to that effect ("Purchaser's Certificate").

8.2. Performance of Obligations of Purchaser. Purchaser shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and covenants required to be performed by Purchaser under this Agreement prior to or as of the Closing Date.

8.3. No Obstructive Proceeding. No action or proceeding shall have been instituted or threatened against and no order, decree or judgment of any court, agency, commission or Governmental Authority shall be existing against Seller or its business which seeks to or would render it unlawful as of the Closing to effect the sale of the Acquired Assets in accordance with the terms hereof, and no such action whether instituted or threatened shall seek damages against Seller or the Business in a material amount by reason of the transactions contemplated hereby.

8.4. Permits, Approvals and Consents. Any and all permits, releases, approvals and consents from any Person required for the consummation of the Closing set forth on Schedule 5.3.

8.5. Board Approval. The Board of Directors of Seller and the special committee thereof formed on August 13, 2003 (the "Special Committee") in their sole and absolute discretion shall be satisfied with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

8.6. Independent Valuation. Seller shall have obtained a fairness opinion from an independent investment banking firm, appraisal firm or accounting firm (the "Valuation Firm"), satisfactory to the Special Committee, to the effect that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are fair, from a financial point of view, to Seller and its stockholders.

8.7 Shareholder Approval. Seller shall have obtained the approval of its shareholders in accordance with and as required by its organizational documents and applicable law.

SECTION 9. TAX MATTERS

9.1. Filing of Returns. Seller shall properly and timely prepare, file and deliver to the appropriate authorities or other persons all tax returns, reports and forms with respect to Seller's operations required to be filed and delivered, for any taxable period ending on or before the Closing Date, and shall ensure that all Charges (as hereinafter defined) and other impositions shown thereon to be due and payable have been paid prior to the date on which any fine, penalty, interest, late charge or loss may be added thereto for the nonpayment thereof, unless any such amounts are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings, or any such fine, penalty, interest, late charge or loss has been paid. For purposes of this Agreement, "Charges" shall mean all federal, state, county, city, municipal, local, foreign or other governmental taxes, levies, assessments and charges, liens, claims or encumbrances upon or relating to Seller's employees, payroll, income, or gross receipts, Seller's ownership or use of any of its assets, or any other aspect of Seller's business, in each case including any and all interest and penalties. For any period not ending prior to or on the Closing Date, Purchaser shall timely prepare and file with or deliver to the appropriate authorities or other persons all tax returns, reports and forms required to be filed or delivered.

9.2. Ad Valorem and Similar Taxes. Ad valorem, property and similar taxes and assessments (other than taxes on income, gain or receipts, or transfer taxes in respect of the Acquired Assets) based upon or measured by the value of the Acquired Assets shall be divided or prorated between Purchaser and Seller as of the Closing Date based on the amount of such taxes paid for the previous year, unless a new tax statement is received prior to the Closing Date, in which event the tax apportionment made as of the Closing Date shall be adjusted in accordance with such new tax statement or as otherwise mutually agreed. In this regard, Seller shall assume responsibility for such taxes attributable to the period of time prior to the Closing Date and Purchaser shall assume responsibility for the periods of time thereafter. A period not ending on the Closing Date shall be referred to as a "Straddle Period". Real, personal and intangible personal property Taxes allocable to Seller shall be equal to the amount of such Taxes for the entire taxable period multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is a number of days in a Straddle Period prior to and including the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of days in the Straddle Period. All other Taxes for the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date shall be computed as if such taxable period ended as of the close of business on the Closing Date. Not later than 30 days after the Closing Date, Purchaser and Seller shall determine and shall pay all amounts required to be paid pursuant to such allocation.

9.3. Audits. In the event of an audit by a taxing authority involving Seller, the consent of Purchaser shall not be required unless Taxes are being assessed against Purchaser and Seller has not provided funds to pay any such Taxes.

SECTION 10. PRE-CLOSING COVENANTS

10.1. Efforts to Consummate Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each party hereto shall use commercially reasonable efforts to take or cause to be taken all actions and do or cause to be done all things required under applicable law in order to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, including, without limitation, (i) obtaining all Governmental Authorizations and other permits, authorizations, consents and approvals of any other Person which are required for or in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other documents contemplated hereby, (ii) taking any and all reasonable actions necessary to satisfy all of the conditions to such party's obligations hereunder, and (iii) executing and delivering all agreements and documents required by the terms hereof to be executed and delivered by such party on or prior to the Closing. With regard to all dates and time period set forth or referred to in this Agreement, time is of the essence.

10.2. Publicity. Except as otherwise required by applicable law or the disclosure rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, neither Purchaser nor Seller shall issue any press release or make any other public statement (including statements to Employees) relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby without obtaining the prior written approval of the other party hereto of the contents and manner of presentation and publication thereof.

10.3. Conduct of Business. During the period from the date hereof to the Closing Date, Seller will conduct its operations in the usual and ordinary course of business and in substantially the same manner as previously conducted, including without limitation that Seller will (i) to the extent of funds available in the ordinary course of business, pay all accounts payable which are due; and (ii) collect all accounts receivable in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices and shall not factor or finance any such receivables.

10.4. Revision of Schedules. During the period from the date hereof to the Closing Date, the parties shall be able to amend the schedules to this Agreement to correct any factual inaccuracies or omissions including but not limited to assumed obligations, obligations and material contracts contained in such schedules at any time between the date hereof and the Closing Date, provided, however, any contemplated change must be approved by all parties to this Agreement, which approvals shall not be unreasonably withheld.

10.5. Solicitation of Transactions. From the date of this Agreement until the occurrence of the Closing, Seller will not directly or indirectly through the Valuation Firm or otherwise solicit or entertain offers from, negotiate with or in any manner encourage, discuss, accept or consider any proposal of any other person relating to the acquisition of the Seller, its assets or business, in whole or in part, whether directly or indirectly, through purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise (other than sales of inventory in the ordinary course of business).

10.6 Name Change.

(a) Seller hereby represents, warrants and covenants to Purchaser that the corporate name of Seller is as set forth on the signature page hereof and further agrees and acknowledges that such name is included with the Acquired Assets and that the exclusive right to use such name will be transferred to Purchaser on the Closing Date. Seller shall, prior to the Closing Date, (i) file an appropriate amendment to Seller's Articles of Incorporation and take all other actions necessary to change its name to a name which is in no way similar to the corporate name set forth on the signature page hereof, in Purchaser's judgment; (ii) shall furnish any written consents and assignments as Purchaser shall hereafter reasonably request in connection with such name change. Seller further agrees to take all actions, after the Closing, which are requested by Purchaser to enable Purchaser to immediately change its name to Seller's present name.

(b) In connection with the same, Seller shall remove or cover, or shall have caused to be removed or covered, no later than 30 days after the Closing Date, the trademarks and/or trade names transferred pursuant to this Agreement, or any derivative of such names or marks, from letterhead, envelopes, labels, containers, signs, panels, signage and other material or matter (regardless of medium).

SECTION 11. POST-CLOSING COVENANTS

11.1. Further Assurances. Following the Closing, Seller and Purchaser shall execute and deliver such documents, and take such other action, as shall be reasonably requested by the other party hereto to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

11.2. Access to Records. For a period of three years after the Closing Date, Seller shall have the right, at its expense, and during normal business hours upon prior written notification, to inspect and copy any of the records relating to the operation of Seller's business delivered to Purchaser in connection with this transaction, for the purposes of (a) preparing and/or defending tax returns for the period prior to the Closing Date, (b) obtaining information relating to claims arising from the operation of the Business prior to the Closing Date or (c) any other commercially reasonable purpose. During such seven year period, Purchaser shall not destroy or discard such records. After such seven year period, Purchaser may destroy or discard such records, but must provide Seller with at least 90 days' prior written notice of its intentions and shall give Seller the right, at its expense, to remove from Purchaser's premises any such records within such 90 day period.

11.3 Payment of Retained Liabilities. In addition to the payment of Taxes pursuant to Section 10, Seller shall pay, or make adequate provision for the payment, in full of all of the liabilities of Seller not assumed by Purchaser hereunder. If any such liabilities are not so paid or provided for, or if Purchaser reasonably determines that failure to make any payments will impair Purchaser's use or enjoyment of the Acquired Assets, Purchaser may, at any time after the Closing Date, elect to make all such payments directly (but shall have no obligation to do so) and set off and deduct the full amount of all such payments from the first maturing installments of the unpaid principal balance of the Promissory Note. Purchaser shall receive full credit under the Promissory Note and this Agreement for all payments so made.

11.4. Non-Competition. Seller hereby agrees that it shall, for a period from the Closing Date until the fifth anniversary thereof, (the "Covenant Period"), refrain from, anywhere within the continental United States (the "Restricted Location"), directly or indirectly, owning, managing, operating, controlling or financing, any business that is engaged in the business of the research, development, manufacturing, marketing or sale of dietary or nutritional supplements, drinks, bars, or other similar products whether web-based or otherwise; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to the ownership of not more than five percent of the outstanding capital stock of any company listed by a national securities exchange or an over-the-counter stock listed by the National Association of Securities Dealers.

11.5. Confidentiality.

(a) Definition of Confidential Information. As used in this Section 11.5, the term "Confidential Information" includes any and all of the following information of Seller or Purchaser that has been or may hereafter be disclosed in any form, whether in writing, orally, electronically or otherwise, or otherwise made available by observation, inspection or otherwise by either party (Purchaser on the one hand or Seller on the other hand) or its Representatives (collectively, a "Disclosing Party") to the other party or its Representatives (collectively, a "Receiving Party"):

- (i) all information that is a trade secret under applicable trade secret or other law;
- (ii) all information concerning product specifications, data, know-how, formulae, compositions, processes, designs, sketches, photographs, graphs, drawings, samples, inventions and ideas, past, current and planned research and development, current and planned manufacturing or distribution methods and processes, customer lists, current and anticipated customer requirements, price lists, market studies, business plans, computer hardware, Software and computer software and database technologies, systems, structures and architectures;
- (iii) all information concerning the business and affairs of the Disclosing Party (which includes historical and current financial statements, financial projections and budgets, tax returns and accountants' materials, historical, current and projected sales, capital spending budgets and plans, business plans, strategic plans, marketing and advertising plans, publications, client and customer lists and files, contracts, the names and backgrounds of key personnel and personnel training techniques and materials, however documented), and all information obtained from review of the Disclosing Party's documents or property or discussions with the Disclosing Party regardless of the form of the communication; provided, however, all such information relating to Seller's operations after the Closing Date (whether such information was prepared before or after the Closing Date) shall be excluded from the definition of "Confidential Information"; and
- (iv) all notes, analyses, compilations, studies, summaries and other material prepared by the Receiving Party to the extent containing or based, in whole or in part, upon any information included in the foregoing.

Any trade secrets of a Disclosing Party shall also be entitled to all of the protections and benefits under applicable trade secret law and any other applicable law. If any information that a Disclosing Party deems to be a trade secret is found by a court of competent jurisdiction not to be a trade secret for purposes of this Section 11.5, such information shall still be considered Confidential Information of that Disclosing Party for purposes of this Section 11.5 to the extent included within the definition. In the case of trade secrets, each of Purchaser and Seller hereby waives any requirement that the other party submit proof of the economic value of any trade secret or post a bond or other security.

(b) Restricted Use of Confidential Information. Each Receiving Party acknowledges the confidential and proprietary nature of the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party and agrees that such Confidential Information (i) shall be kept confidential by the Receiving Party; (ii) shall not be used for any reason or purpose other than to evaluate and consummate the Contemplated Transactions; and (iii) without limiting the foregoing, shall not be disclosed by the Receiving Party to any Person, except in each case as otherwise expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement or with the prior written consent of an authorized representative of Seller with respect to Confidential Information of Seller ("Seller Contact") or an authorized representative of Purchaser with respect to Confidential Information of Purchaser ("Purchaser Contact"). Each of Purchaser and Seller shall disclose the Confidential Information of the other party only to its Representatives who require such material for the purpose of evaluating the transactions contemplated hereby and are informed by Purchaser or Seller, as the case may be, of the obligations of this Section 11.5 with respect to such information. Each of Purchaser and Seller shall (i) enforce the terms of this Section 11.5 as to its respective Representatives; (v) take such action to the extent necessary to cause its Representatives to comply with the terms and conditions of this Section 11.5; and (vi) be responsible and liable for any breach of the provisions of this Section 11.5 by it or its Representatives.

(c) Unless and until this Agreement is terminated, Seller shall maintain as confidential any Confidential Information relating to any of the Acquired Assets or the Assumed Obligations. From and after the Closing Date, the provisions of Section 11.5(b) above shall not apply to or restrict in any manner Purchaser's use of any Confidential Information of the Seller relating to any of the Assets or the Assumed Liabilities.

(d) Exceptions. Sections 11.5(b) and (c) do not apply to that part of the Confidential Information of a Disclosing Party that a Receiving Party demonstrates (a) was, is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a breach of this Section 11.5 by the Receiving Party or its Representatives; (b) was or is developed by the Receiving Party independently of and without reference to any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party; or (c) was, is or becomes available to the Receiving Party on a nonconfidential basis from a Third Party not bound by a confidentiality agreement or any legal, fiduciary or other obligation restricting disclosure. Seller shall not disclose any Confidential Information of Seller relating to any of the Acquired Assets or the Assumed Obligations in reliance on the exceptions in clauses (b) or (c) above.

(e) Legal Proceedings. If a Receiving Party becomes compelled in any action, arbitration, audit, hearing, investigation, litigation or suit (whether civil, criminal, administrative, judicial or investigative) by any governmental body, court or administrative agency to make any disclosure that is prohibited or otherwise constrained by this Section 11.5, that Receiving Party shall provide the Disclosing Party with prompt notice of such compulsion or request so that it may seek an appropriate protective order or other appropriate remedy or waive compliance with the provisions of this Section 11.5. In the absence of a protective order or other remedy, the Receiving Party may disclose that portion (and only that portion) of the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party that, based upon advice of the Receiving Party's counsel, the Receiving Party is legally compelled to disclose or that has been requested by such court or governmental body, provided, however, that the Receiving Party shall use reasonable efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded by any Person to whom any Confidential Information is so disclosed. The provisions of this Section 11.5(e) do not apply to any Proceedings between the parties to this Agreement.

(f) Return or Destruction of Confidential Information. If this Agreement is terminated, each Receiving Party shall (a) destroy all Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party prepared or generated by the Receiving Party without retaining a copy of any such material; (b) promptly deliver to the Disclosing Party all other Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party, together with all copies thereof, in the possession, custody or control of the Receiving Party or, alternatively, with the written consent of a Seller Contact or a Purchaser Contact (whichever represents the Disclosing Party) destroy all such Confidential Information; and (c) certify all such destruction in writing to the Disclosing Party, provided, however, that the Receiving Party may retain a list that contains general descriptions of the information it has returned or destroyed to facilitate the resolution of any controversies after the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information is returned.

(g) Attorney-Client Privilege. The Disclosing Party is not waiving, and will not be deemed to have waived or diminished, any of its attorney work product protections, attorney-client privileges or similar protections and privileges as a result of disclosing its Confidential Information (including Confidential Information related to pending or threatened litigation) to the Receiving Party, regardless of whether the Disclosing Party has asserted, or is or may be entitled to assert, such privileges and protections. The parties (a) share a common legal and commercial interest in all of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information that is subject to such privileges and protections; (b) are or may become joint defendants in Proceedings to which the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information covered by such protections and privileges relates; (c) intend that such privileges and protections remain intact should either party become subject to any actual or threatened proceeding to which the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information covered by such protections and privileges relates; and (d) intend that after the Closing Date, the Receiving Party shall have the right to assert such protections and privileges. No Receiving Party shall admit, claim or contend, in Proceedings involving either party or otherwise, that any Disclosing Party waived any of its attorney work-product protections, attorney-client privileges or similar protections and privileges with respect to any information, documents or other material not disclosed to a Receiving Party due to the Disclosing Party disclosing its Confidential Information (including Confidential Information related to pending or threatened litigation) to the Receiving Party.

11.6 Insurance Matters.

(a) Purchaser as "Additional Insured." Effective as of the Closing Date, Seller shall have included Purchaser as an additional named insured on Seller's Insurance Policies, including but not limited to, Seller's products liability insurance with respect to Seller's products, and Seller shall assure that such policies provide coverage for products sold by Seller prior to the Closing Date.

(b) D&O Insurance for Tisi. Seller shall maintain its existing director and officer liability insurance and shall maintain the availability of such coverage to Tisi for a period of time that is not less than the statute of limitations for state and federal liability claims, and shall use reasonable efforts to preserve the existing scope and terms of such coverage during such period of time.

(c) Indemnification of Tisi. Seller agrees to extend the term, if necessary, and terms and conditions of its Indemnification Agreement with Tisi dated January 1, 2002 for a period of time that is not less than the applicable statute of limitations for state and federal liability claims.

SECTION 12. INDEMNIFICATION

12.1. Survival and Limitation on Liabilities.

(a) All representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement shall survive the Closing for 12 months following the Closing Date other than the representations and warranties of Seller set forth in Section 5.14 which shall survive until the expiration of the statute of limitations in respect thereof. No action or proceeding may be brought with respect to any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement (including any claim for indemnification made pursuant to Sections 12.2 and 12.3 below), unless written notice thereof, setting forth in reasonable detail the claimed misrepresentation or breach of warranty shall have been delivered to the party alleged to have breached such representation or warranty prior to the expiration of the survival terms set forth in the preceding sentence. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, with respect to any claim with respect to a breach of any representation or warranty (including any indemnification claims relating thereto), (i) Purchaser or a Permitted Assignee shall not be entitled to receive any damages or to indemnification from Seller with respect to any breach of any representation or warranty under Section 5 hereof if Purchaser, any equity holder, officer or director of Purchaser, any Permitted Assignee or any equity holder, officer or director of such Permitted Assignee, knew at any time prior to the Closing Date of the facts or circumstances constituting or resulting in such breach of representation or warranty, and (ii) Seller shall not be entitled to receive any damages or to indemnification from Purchaser with respect to any breach of any representation or warranty under Section 6 hereof if any member of the Special Committee of the Board of Directors of Seller knew at any time prior to the Closing of the facts or circumstances constituting or resulting in such breach of representation or warranty.

(b) The covenants and agreements contained in Sections 10.1 and 10.3 shall not survive the Closing. The remaining covenants and agreements (including but not limited to the indemnities) contained in this Agreement shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and the completion of the transactions contemplated herein. The limitations set forth in subsection (a) above shall not apply to any claim for breach of any covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement.

12.2. Indemnification by Seller. For 12 months from the date hereof, Seller agrees to indemnify Purchaser, Tisi, or Permitted Assignee with respect to, and hold Purchaser, Tisi, or Permitted Assignee harmless from, any loss, liability, damage, cost or expense including, but not limited to, reasonable legal fees and expenses and any tax liabilities of Seller for any period ending on Closing Date or for any tax liability allocable to the portion of any Straddle Period ending as of the Closing Date (collectively, the "Losses") which Purchaser, Tisi, or any Permitted Assignee may incur or suffer which results from or arises out of (i) the Excluded Obligations or (ii) the inaccuracy of any representation or warranty made by Seller in this Agreement unless (1) such inaccuracy is corrected by such Seller prior to Closing in a supplement to any schedule hereto which is accepted by Purchaser in accordance with Section 10.4 hereof, or (2) Purchaser or any equity holder, officer or director of any Purchaser, any Permitted Assignee, or any equity holder, officer or director of any Permitted Assignee knew or should have known, at any time prior to the Closing, of such inaccuracy.

12.3. Indemnification by Purchaser. For 12 months from the date hereof, Purchaser agrees to indemnify Seller with respect to, and hold Seller harmless from, any Losses which Seller may incur or suffer which results from or arises out of the inaccuracy of any representation or warranty made by Purchaser in this Agreement.

12.4. Procedures for Indemnification. Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party under Section 12.2 or Section 12.3 of notice of the commencement of any third party action or other event for which indemnification may be available under Section 12.2 or 12.3, such indemnified party shall, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against an indemnifying party under such Section, give notice to the indemnifying party of the commencement thereof, but the failure so to notify that indemnifying party shall not relieve it of any liability that it may have to any indemnified party, except to the extent the indemnifying party demonstrates that the defense of such action is prejudiced thereby. In case any such action shall be brought against an indemnified party and it shall give notice to the indemnifying party of the commencement thereof, the indemnifying party shall be entitled to participate therein and, to the extent that it shall elect, to assume the defense thereof with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party and, after notice from the indemnifying party to such indemnified party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the indemnifying party shall not be liable to such indemnified party under such Section for any fees of other counsel or any other expenses, in each case incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the indemnified party's own defense thereof, other than reasonable costs of investigation and costs and expenses of legal counsel if the indemnified party and the indemnifying party are both parties to the action and the indemnified party has been advised by counsel that there may be one or more defenses available to it and not available to the indemnifying party which defenses result in a conflict of interest. If an indemnifying party assumes the defense of such an action, (a) such assumption will conclusively establish for purposes of this Agreement that the claims made are within the scope of and subject to indemnification; (b) no compromise or settlement thereof may be effected by the indemnifying party without the indemnified party's consent unless (i) there is no finding or admission or any violation of law or any violation of the rights of any Person and no effect on any other claims that may be made against the indemnified party, and (ii) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the indemnifying party; and (c) the indemnified party shall have no liability with respect to any compromise or settlement thereof effected without its consent. If notice is given to an indemnifying party of any claim for indemnification hereunder and the indemnifying party does not, within ten (10) days after the indemnified party's notice is given, give notice to the indemnifying party of its election to assume the defense thereof, the indemnifying party will be bound by any determination made in connection therewith or any compromise or settlement effected by the indemnified party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an indemnified party determines in good faith that there is a reasonable probability that a third-party claim may adversely affect it or its Affiliates other than as a result of monetary damages for which it would be entitled to indemnification under this Agreement, the indemnified party may, by notice to the indemnifying party, assume the exclusive right to defend, compromise or settle such third-party claim. Both the indemnified party and the indemnifying party shall keep the other fully informed of the status of any claim for which indemnification has been sought at all stages thereof.

12.5. Punitive Damages. No party to this Agreement shall seek or be entitled to punitive, exemplary and/or consequential damages with respect to any claim under this Agreement.

12.6 Insurance Matters. In the event that Purchaser or any of its officers or directors incur defense costs and damages arising out of or relating to any liabilities retained by Seller hereunder or arising out of or relating to matters for which Seller has agreed to indemnify Purchaser hereunder, Seller shall use its best efforts to seek coverage under its Insurance Policies on behalf of Purchaser to reimburse Purchaser for such costs or damages.

12.7 Right to Setoff. Upon notice to Seller specifying in reasonable detail the basis therefore, Purchaser may set off any amount to which it may be entitled under this Section 12 against amounts otherwise payable under the Promissory Note. The exercise of such right of setoff by Purchaser in good faith, whether or not ultimately determined to be justified, will not constitute an event of default under the Promissory Note. Neither the exercise of nor the failure to exercise such right of setoff will constitute an election of remedies or limit Purchaser in any manner in the enforcement of any other remedies that may be available to it.

SECTION 13. TERMINATION

13.1. Termination Events.

(a) Seller may terminate this Agreement by delivery of notice of termination to Purchaser if at any time prior to the Closing Date:

(i) Purchaser fails or refuses to perform in any material respect any obligation or covenant to be performed by it pursuant to this Agreement prior to the Closing Date and the breach has not been cured within ten business days following the receipt of notice by Purchaser of the breach; or

(ii) Any of the conditions in Section 8 of this Agreement has not been satisfied as of the Drop Dead Date or, if satisfaction of such a condition is or becomes impossible (other than through the failure of such Seller to comply with its obligations under this Agreement), Seller have not waived such condition on or before Drop Dead Date.

(b) Purchaser may terminate this Agreement by delivery of notice of termination to Seller if any time prior to the Closing Date:

(i) Seller fails or refuses to perform in any material respect any obligation or covenant to be performed by it pursuant to this Agreement prior to the Closing Date which has not been cured within ten business days following receipt of notice of the breach; or

(ii) Any of the conditions set forth in Section 7 of this Agreement has not been satisfied as of the Closing Date or, if satisfaction of such a condition is or becomes impossible (other than through the failure of Purchaser to comply with its obligations under this Agreement), Purchaser has not waived such condition on or before the Drop Dead Date.

(c) The parties may terminate this Agreement at any time prior to the Closing Date by mutual written consent; or

(d) Any party may terminate this Agreement by delivery of notice of termination to the other party if the Closing has not occurred on or before the Drop Dead Date, or such later date as the parties may agree upon in writing.

13.2. Effect of Termination. Each party's right of termination under Section 13.1 is in addition to any other rights it may have under this Agreement or otherwise, and the exercise of a right of termination shall not be an election of remedies. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 13.1, all further obligations of the parties under this Agreement shall terminate, except that the rights and obligations in Sections 10.2 (Publicity), 11.5 (Confidentiality), 14.4 (Expenses), 14.6 (Governing Law), 14.7 (Indemnification for Broker Fees), and 14.11 (Attorneys' Fees) of this Agreement shall survive; provided, however, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, that if this Agreement is terminated by a party because of the breach of the Agreement by another party or because one or more of the conditions of the terminating party's obligations under this Agreement are not satisfied as a result of the other party's failure to comply with its obligations under this Agreement, the terminating party's right to pursue all legal remedies shall survive such termination unimpaired; and further, provided, if this Agreement is terminated for any reason other than the breach by Purchaser of any of the terms and conditions hereof, Seller agrees to cause the Escrow Amount to be distributed from escrow to Purchaser.

SECTION 14. MISCELLANEOUS

14.1. Severability. Should any part of this Agreement for any reason be declared invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of any remaining portion, which remaining portion shall remain in full force and effect as if this Agreement had been executed with the invalid portion thereof eliminated and it is hereby declared the intention of the parties hereto that they would have executed the remaining portion of this Agreement without including thereon any such part, parts, or portion which may, for any reason, be hereafter declared invalid.

14.2. Counterparts; Facsimile. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which, taken together, shall constitute one Agreement. The exchange of copies of this Agreement and of signature pages by facsimile transmission shall constitute effective execution and delivery of this Agreement as to the parties and may be used in lieu of the original for all purposes. Signatures of the parties transmitted by facsimile shall be deemed to be their original signatures for all purposes.

14.3. Headings. Section headings used in this Agreement have no legal significance and are used solely for convenience of reference.

14.4. Expenses. Except as provided in Section 13.2 of this Agreement, each party shall pay for its own legal, accounting and other similar expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, whether or not such transactions are consummated.

14.5. Transfer Taxes; Recording Fees. Any income, sales, transfer, use or excise taxes payable in connection with these transactions shall be paid by the party responsible therefor under applicable local law. All costs incurred (including professional fees) in connection with the recording of trademark assignments with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, including the issuance of new certifications of each trademark, shall be paid by Seller. All documentary or other taxes due in connection with the issuance and delivery of the Promissory Note shall be paid by Seller.

14.6. Law Governing. This Agreement shall be deemed to have been entered into under the laws of the State of Florida, and the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder shall be governed and determined according to the laws of said state without giving any effect to conflict of laws.

14.7. Indemnification for Broker Fees. Seller agrees to indemnify and save harmless Purchaser, and Purchaser agrees to indemnify and save harmless Seller, from and against any and all actions, causes of action, suits, losses, liabilities and damages, and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements in connection therewith) for any brokers or finders fees arising with respect to brokers or finders engaged by the non-indemnifying party.

14.8. Binding Effect and Assignment. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns; but neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, benefits or obligations hereunder shall be assigned, by operation of law or otherwise, by Purchaser without the prior written consent of Seller which may be withheld in its sole discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser shall have the right prior to the Closing Date to assign its rights under this Agreement to an entity of which Tisi directly or indirectly owns at least a majority of the equity interests therein (a "Permitted Assignee"). Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any person or entity other than the parties hereto and Tisi, and their respective permitted successors and assigns, any rights, benefits or obligations hereunder.

14.9. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the schedules and documents delivered pursuant hereto constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether written or oral (including any letter of intent and any confidentiality agreement between Seller and Purchaser). No supplement, modification or waiver of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by the party or parties to be bound thereby. No delay in the exercise of any rights by any party hereunder shall operate as a waiver of any rights of such party.

14.10. Notices. All notices, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered in person, mailed by national overnight courier, postage prepaid, or sent via telecopier:

PRESS RELEASE

HEALTH & NUTRITION SYSTEMS INTERNATIONAL INC.
ANNOUNCES SALE OF ASSETS

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Nov. 26 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- The Board of Directors of Health & Nutrition Systems International Inc. (OTC Bulletin Board: HNNS - News) announced today that the Company has entered into a definitive agreement to sell the operations of its main business to TeeZee Inc. TeeZee is a Florida-based company that was formed by Christopher Tisi, who currently serves as the Chief Executive Officer of HNNS.

Under the terms of the Agreement, TeeZee Inc. will acquire substantially all of the assets of HNNS, in exchange for the payment of $411,000 of which $375,000 will be paid in cash and $36,000 will be represented by a promissory note. TeeZee will also assume approximately $2 million of HNNS' debt. The proceeds of the sale will be used by the Company to identify and facilitate its entry into a more robust line of business, either through a merger or other vehicle, with the goal of providing shareholders of HNNS with greater opportunity for long term share appreciation.

James A. Brown, Chairman of The Board of Directors, noted that the transaction was driven by two factors. "First, while HNNS has shown signs of improved performance the past year, the Board believes that the regulatory and business environment for diet-related supplements is enormously challenging and will grow more challenging in the near future, and the public sector will continue to weigh those risks in valuing companies in this space. Second, the offer by TeeZee Inc. presented a unique opportunity for the Board to realize value for the shareholders of HNNS while providing the Company with sufficient liquidity to seek strategic alternatives. We are excited about entering this new chapter."

This transaction is subject to approval by the shareholders of HNNS. Proxies detailing the opportunity are expected to be mailed to shareholders on or before December 20, 2003. The transaction is expected to close on January 31, 2003.

HNS develops and markets weight management products in over 25,000 health, food and drug store locations. The Company's products can be found in CVS, GNC, Eckerd, Rite Aid, Vitamin Shoppe, Vitamin World, Walgreens and Wal-Mart. The Company's HNS Direct division distributes to independent health food stores, gyms and pharmacies. For more information, visit: <http://www.hnsglobal.com/>.

This news release contains forward-looking statements, as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and is subject to the safe harbor created by that act. These forward-looking statements concern the Company's operations, economic performance and financial condition and are based largely on the Company's beliefs and expectations. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results to be materially different from any future results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors and risks include, among others, the factors described in the Company's filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the recent terrorist attacks on the United States, possible responses by the U.S. government, general economic conditions, consumer confidence and changes in consumer preference, introduction of products that compete with the Company's products, and the availability and deployment of capital. Finally, recent government action and the surrounding publicity regarding ephedra-containing products may make it difficult for us to obtain and maintain product liability insurance for our products containing ephedra at current premiums. Certain of these factors and risks, as well as other risks and uncertainties are stated in more detail in the Company's annual report on Form 10-KSB. These forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this press release, and the Company assumes no obligation to update the forward-looking statements or to update the reasons why the actual results could differ from those projected in the forward- looking statements.
